TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.—AN ARTICLE published is your paper, on the 8th Instant, taken, I presume, from a statemen of Mr. Commissioner Kennedy, relative to the alieped "outrage," committed on the passengers of tag St. Nicholas, contains imputations injurious to my character. I hope you will paper me the nivilence of warrier than the contract of the statement of the contract of the statement of the statement of the contract of the statement of the statement

I hope you will permit me the privilege of removing them, between the public. I am serry to say of Mr. Kennedy or any other gent evan that his statement is fullof exaggerations. Between the public. I am serry to say of Mr. Kennedy or any other gent evan that his statement is fullof exaggerations. Between control of the my proceeding and the say a few words in regard to my former position with the Commissioners of himgration, to explain some remarks of Mr. Garrigoe.

When Castle Garden was inaugurated, the cumpany I represent the Pennsylvania Contrait Radiroad Company, were permitted to sell their tickets there to emigrants, on paying twenty per cent on the sales to the Commissioners of Emigration. Finding after a while we could not, at our reduced reace, pay such a commission, we were excluded from disposing of our tickets, to trave, by more circuitous and expender outes. For example instead of gring to Plusburg by the Pennsylvania Central line direct, they were forced to go there vis a suitable and Dunkirk. To show this difference of lare, we sell a ticket to Milwaulae for Sio 75, all care forced to go there vis a suitable and Dunkirk. To show this difference of lare, we sell a ticket to Milwaulae for Sio 75, all care forced to go there vis a suitable of the my suitable of the commissioners of forced to go there wis a child on the sale of the commissioners of the my suitable of the part of the commissioners of the commissioners of the commission of 10 per cent, from selling them transportation tickets, especially as hir. Garrigue, one of the Commissioners in the case of smith vs. The Commissioners of Emigration, testided that he knew of no law compelling emigrants to land at Castle Garden. Cour clauses companies, who refused paying the commission of 10 per cent, from selling them transportation tickets, especially as hir. Garrigue, to law compelling emigraris to land at Castle Garden. Cour of man Smith resolved to test their countril powers—hence the proceedings complished of.

Instead of using violence in boarded the St. Nicholas, or on the proceedings complished of.

Instead of using violence in boarded, the utmost order was considered, as the sposition of officer Froude, one of the policemen there on duty, shows; besides, there are over a dozen allitavital of other passengers in the Major's office to the same effect, which may be seen there.

There were no remement the ship, from Havre, employed by me, or the Pennayivania Rairona Compuny, to induce my arsengers to purchase betzets; but, on the contrary, there were several persons, who the agent of Mr. Weed, one of the amount of the same of takes to the other passengers, on behalf of the line he represents in the building, as the affidavit of Jacob Inderman, before Hon. Issue C. Jacker, proves.

The sistement, you publish of Mr. Garrigue's remarks, to the passengers of the St. Nicholas, that they had failed in the hands of "robbers." Is maltevolent on his part and incorrect. Those who purchased tickets from me for their different places of cestimation dig so after they found out that the prices demanded for the same places in Castle Garden were exterbitant in comprison to our charges. To confirm this statement, and de, that notwithstanding the investigation at the Mayor's office, notwithstanding the investigation at the Mayor's office, notwithstanding the investigation at the Mayor's office, not withstanding the investigation at the Mayor's office, not withstanding the investigation at the Mayor's office, not withstanding the investigation to whom it is immuted, but by some emigrants, who were inhibited from seeing their families, and who were assaulted by order of Mr. Garregue, (who probably mistock them for runners) to compel them from the process.

probably matook teem for runners) to Compet uses it has no been relieved to and submit them to your tospec ion to aubitantiate my assertions.

In conclusion let me say, I de not do any independent business as a booker or lorwarder, but an merely the representative of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, and they are responsible for my conduct relative to all transactions in their behalf. In this case there has been no violation of law, or propriety on our part, and I am most anxious to have our non-iested before a legal tribunal. Respectfully, Agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.
